ST Run: Registration opens tomorrow for unique running event at Punggol Waterway

BY LIM MIN ZHANG

Registration for the inaugural Straits Times Run In The Park, set to be the largest running event at one of Singapore's newest scenic park connectors, opens on June 6.

The run will be held on Sunday, Aug 25, in the North Eastern Riverine Loop which cuts through the scenic Punggol Waterway and overlooks Punggol and Serangoon reservoirs.

It will feature five categories: a 5km fun-run for recreational runners, and the 10km and 15km (men's and women's) runs.

The run is organised by The Straits Times as part of the Straits Times Appreciates Readers (Star) series to engage its readers and the community. The event is in collaboration with the National Parks (NParks) Board, which is commemorating "50 Years of Greening Singapore".

Mr Marc Lim, sports editor of The Straits Times, said: "Sport unites. It excites. It entertains. These are the three principles which The Straits Times can identify with. This is why when it came to organising an event to engage our readers, a sporting event seemed the perfect fit."

The registration fee is $46 for the 5km fun-run and $55 for the 10km and 15km competitive runs. Those who sign up in a group of four or more will get a discount and need pay only $42 and $50 respectively.

As The Straits Times celebrates its 168th birthday this year, all participants are entitled to a goodie bag with more than $168 worth of gifts including:
